

I truly value the variety of viewpoints that the media provides and am disturbed by your consideration of allowing one parent corporation to own and control our media. This would be a great disservice to the American people and democracy, and I hope that you will reject changes that would facilitate the monopolizing of our media outlets.